EEMONSTRATION SEDAR HELD

A demenstration Passovor sodar was 68 conductod for the first time at the Luthcran Thoological Sominary here, the oldost Luthoran seminary in tho Wostorn Homisphore.

Dr. Donald R. Hoigos, prosidont of the Lutheran Church in Amorica institution, describod the ovent as "an important aspoct of building bridges with the Jowish community."

The sedar was conducted by Rabbi Solomon S. Bernards, director of the Anti-Defamation Loague of $B^{\prime}$ nai $B^{\top}$ rith's department of intor-religious cooperation. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Golant, one of sovoral Jewsih families residing in Gettysburg, participated in the ritual, together with their three childron.
"The purpose of tho sedar presontation was twofold, " Rabbi Bernards told the moro than 110 students and faculty who attended the demonstration:
"First, to shed light on the link. ago botwoen tho Passover sedar and the rites associated with the Last Supper and, secondly, to illustrate the living spiritual heritago of Passover for the Jews of today.
"The liberation of the ancient Hebrew slaves and God 's providence," he continued, "remain continuously relovant and inspiring. The interest of Christians in the Jewiern background of their faith has in rocent yoars created a basis for a decper understanding of the cormon ground and difforences of Judaism and Christianity."

Rabbi Bernards pointed out that this interest is a "sign of a willingness to develop now forms of interfaith cooporation."

The der nstration sedar was sponsorod by the Seminary Stud nt Ecumenics Comnittee in cooperation with the ADL. Dr. Heigos announced that through tho cooperation of Rabbi Bernards and the DL, the eominary would institute a course (Cont'd next column)

MEMORIAL TO A CONTEMPORARY MARTYR

In remombrance of Martin Luther King, we submit the following quotation from his beliefs:
"I am convinced that the univorse is under the control of a loving purpose, and that in the struggle for righteousness man has cosmic companion= ship. Behind tho harsh appearances of the world there is a benign power. To say that this God is personal is not to make him a finite object bosides other objects or attributo to him the limitations of human personality; it is to take what is finest and noblest in our consciousness and affirm its perfoct existence in him.

We must nover feel that God will, through some breathtaking miracle or a wave of the hand, cast evil out of the world. As long as wo bolieve this we will pray unansworable prayors and ask God to do things that he will nover do.

This would be an unbearable worid were God to have only a single light, but we may bo consoled that God has two lights: a light to guide us in the brightness of the day when hopes are fulfillod and circumstances are favorable, and a light to guide us in the darkness of the midnight whon we are thwarted and the slumbering giants of gloom and hopelossness rise in our souls.

I am convinced of the reality of a personal God .... In the past the idea of a personal God was littlo more than a metaphirsical catogory that I found theologicelly frd phitosoph:cally satisfying. Nrif 't is e living reality that has bues $\cdots$ lidated in ihe experiences of everyniay life. God has been profoundly real to me in recent yoars."

FIRST HALF OF SOFTBALL SEASON TO END IN TWO-WAY DEADLOCK

The first half of the exctiting Sominary Softball League was doomed to end in a two-way tie for first between the Acse and either the Sons of the Prophets or th $\Rightarrow$ Devils whe were to square off against each other Wodnesday in the final gase of the first round.

The Aces started off slowly as they dropped the League opener to the Sons. 12-10, but came on strong to wis their next three contosts. A come-frombehind teiumph over the Devils last Thursday, 10-3, insured the Aces a tie for first. The Sons were upset by the Great Balls $0^{\circ}$ Fire, $16-15$, in the third game of the yoar but then clobbered the All-Stars, 33-6, to give them a 2-1 record.

The Devils jumped off to an early lead downing both the GBoF's and the All-Stars. After losing to the Aces, the Devils also sported a $2-1$ log. The Great Balls o'Fire are only a game out of first place at $2-2$ going into the second half of the season, but they will be tied with the loser of the Sons-Devils contest. The All-Stars dropped their first two contests by an identical 12-11 count to the Aces and the Devils and were within striking distance most of the way against the GBoF's only to suffer a $13-$ ? setback.

Probably the most exciting game of the spring was the extra-inning affair betwoen the Dorlls and tho AllStars. Ed Kopp of the Devils and Ferm Stuemprle of the All-Stars went nine innings on the mound in a real nip-and-tuck contest which saw the lead chnage hands no fewer than seven times. However, with two out in the bottom of the ninth Paul Jones drilled a single to right te ecore Gue Fridenvalds with the winning run.

Another cliffphanger saw Gene Kotterer of the GBoF's stave off a seventh inning Sons' rally to preserve his $16-15$ win. The Great Bells o'Fire jumped off to a 74 lead in the first frame and kept on building up their lead off the Sons' Paul Gerschwitz and 13 fielding miscues. HAPPENINGS

There's just no end to the Happenings aboard the good ship L.T.S. G-BURG, and another one was staged last Friday night. I am talking about THE social event of the season, the Spring Dancep

The Social Conmittee took upon itself the challenging task of planning for the dance. In financing the affair "the sky was the limit" $$ 5.981$ Several places were considered as the site for the dance, but since the battlefield closes at 10:00 and the square at 5:00, the Refectory was the next logical and desirable spot. The Refectory was cheaply, but tastefully decorated.

The services of none other than the "FOUR SPEAKERS" were acquired to provide the music. Unfortunately since finances did not permit the committee to supply the "FOUR SPEAKFRS" with police protection, only two were able to survive and escape the mob of fans, and show up. Local D.J. Lenny Larson was on hand to select the musical num bers that the "FOUR SPEAKERS - two" played.

The occasion was graced by the presence of the two anchor men of the Faculty ALL-STAR team and their wives. While youthful "BAT ${ }^{\text {EMM BALL }}$ FAR" Christiansom (affectinately known in some circles as "HE WHO CARRY PAPOOSE ON BACK") was busy running his wife Carol around the dancefloor, star pitcher "LIGHTENING LARRY FOLKEMER" sat in the corner reassuring everyone that though his team seemed to be having a "run of bad luck", they would manage to TIE at least one game before the end of the baseball season.

Part of the intermission entertainment was provided by Finland's answer to Liberace, Professor Heikk. inen. Professor Heiklinen propounded the keyboard with his famous theology in $B^{*}$ and $B^{\text {b }}$ 。 half of the seventh, Ketterer held a 16-10 lead and looked unbeatable for he had already accounted for none of the 18 putouts made.

The concluding part of the intermission wes provided by the Schmucker Singers. Their performance also bridged on the theological. Via the medira of parody, satire, and tongue in (Cont'd Page 3)

With one away, Jack Keeler unloaded with a double and scored on Lance Braun's single. Ketterer accounted for the second out on a chop to the mound. Win Devomshire slashed a single to left to score Braun and went to second on an error. Charlie Voit doubled him home and then scored on Ken Schott's single. Bob Goehrig send a hard grounder to short and was out on an extremely close play at first to end the game.

The Sons came back to have a field day against the All-Stars in one of the most one-sided contests of the season. "Led by Roger Barnes and Barley, the Sons pounded out five homeruns and a double in a 31-hit attack. Barnes set a record with two four-baggers in a single contest while Barley hit his second homer of the season and went 5-7 at the plate. Devomshire ended a ninerun sixth inning with a grand slam placed nicely in right-center. The slam is the only one of the year so far, The Aces spotted the Devils a 3-0 lead in the first threo innings of their contest, but then began to peck away at Kopp for two runs in the third and another in the fourth to tie the score. The roof waved in in the fifth when the Aces put together five singles and a sacrifice fly to account for four runs. They added three more in the sixth to give hurler Al Towberman his second win without a loss. Ron Reed accounted for four RBI's and scored two runs as he went $3-4$ at the plate with a double. The loss was Kopp's first in three decisions.

Ed Keyser of the All@Stars led the batting race with one game loft in the first round at . 647 . Barnes (Sons) at .588 and Jack Ferra (Aces) at .571 are his nearest threats. Barley and Barnes lead in the home run category with two each; Ferra and Fridenvalds in triples, two each; and six men tied with two doubles a piece. Reed and Barloy lead with nine RBI's each while Barnes and Bill Sanders (All-Stars) have eight. (Cont'd Noxt Col.)

choek the musical prophets really "SOCKED IT TO" their audience and "TOLD IT LIKE IT WAS"!

Although everyone probably could have danced all night, the festivities promptly ended at 11:30. The Refectory has not seen such action since the big "BUTTER vs. OLEO CON* TRAVERSY" of '68.

SPORTS (Cont ${ }^{\mathrm{d}}$ )

Approximately 60 people have participated in the Softball League, and as Athletic Chairman I would like to thank everyone for their enthusiasm whether it be in playing or just as a spectator. It is hoped that the second half of the season will be as enjoyable as the first and as interesting.

The tennis tournament has fallen behind schodule as only four singles matches and no doubles have been nlayed. Nark Peterson who defeated Clarence Eenson, (6-1, 6-3) will face Jack Ferra who topped Davo Nelson (6-1, 6-4) in the socond round of the double eliminations. Benson will play Nelson in the olimination match. In the other two matches, Dale Garman topped Dick Little (6-1, 6-3) and Paul Gerschwitz defeated Lorenz Nieting (6-1, 6-0).

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE STUDENT BODY
Last Vednesday, our seminary participated in the National Eollegiate Presidential Primary. This national test primary was the first of its kind, Colleges and graduate schools across the nation were involved in the testing of sturent political thinking. Congratulations must go to you the student body for the fact that $25.3 \%$ of our campus voted in the electiont That's an excollent showing in any election.

ANGST:

Walking with loneliness
Hand in hand with blank despair I walked a planned itinerary to hell
A long journey to nothingness.
Holding in my heart
No hate or malice
No love or regret
Simply emptiness - a void
Which can never be filled
A vast pit of space, like that beyond the stars
Which knows no bounds,
Only the pangs of loneliness and despair.

My thoughts are turned inward by
The centripetal force of the world around me, and I move as a shadow
No destination to attain
No love to meet
Loneliness and despair are my constant companions.

Oh, I seem to be happy and carefree
My life is but a vain show I hide my torment from probing eyes For I am a man of many friends.

ELECTION ( Cont ${ }^{\circ}$ d)
The ballots were packed and sent to Washingtor, D.C. where Time-L&fe, Inc. and Univac wore to tabulate the final results. It was predicted that over 3,000,000 students would be participating in the primary electiond We should be getting the tabulated results of our oum seminary as well as how we compare to the other schools within the week. We will be posting the results as soon as we get them. Alsom in next week's TIE magazine, a feature articke will be donated to the results of the national primary. Bo on the lookout for that article.

Again, congratulations to you. Thank you for your cooperationl
